

DESIGN HOTELS™

Step into a year of extraordinary creativity as Europe's museums and galleries host exhibitions that redefine the boundaries of art.

January 15, 2025

By Vidula Kotian

Words Vidula Kotian Curated by Marcin Liwarski Date 15 January 2025

Step into a year of extraordinary creativity as Europe's museums and galleries host exhibitions that redefine the boundaries of art.

From Kusama's mesmerizing "Infinity Mirror Rooms" to Picasso's groundbreaking late works, and from Vaginal Davis's bold activism to Ayoung Kim's futuristic worlds, these shows promise to inspire and provoke. Across cities like Berlin, Basel, and Venice, discover artists who challenge tradition, celebrate identity, and reimagine our connection to the world. Let 2025 be your year of art.

Adrian Ghenie, Weltwehmut 1, 2024, © Inffinitart Foundation

Erwin Wurm, Psyche (As You Like It), 2024, © Erwin Wurm / Bildrecht, Vienna. Photo: Markus Gradwohl

Vienna

Adrian Ghenie — Shadow Paintings

Albertina Museum
Until 2 March 2025

Romanian artist Adrian Ghenie pays tribute to Egon Schiele with a groundbreaking exhibition, reimagining the Expressionist's lost works through his own haunting creations. Inspired by black-and-white photographs, Ghenie's "Shadow Paintings" invites viewers on a metaphysical journey of dissolution and reincarnation, bringing Schiele's vision back to life.

Source